Mr. E. Tomlin Bailey

On April 7, 1959, an informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised this Bureau's Miami Office that the Cuban Air Force possesses no knowledge of an expedition being prepared or planned in Cuba for the invasion of Nicaragua or the Dominican Republic. The informant added that Cienfuegos is now in disfavor with Fidel Castro, Cuban Prime Minister, who is jealous of Cienfuegos' popularity. (Source is MM 635-S)

In the event additional pertinent information is received concerning this matter, the recipient agencies will be promptly advised.
